Arno Stern:

Check out his multilingual website for more information, there are many books in French, one in Spanish and lots of information about his beautiful work & courses.

André Stern:

He's Arno Stern's son and '...has never been to school'. I have read almost every single German book he wrote (most of them are also available in French, Spanish and Polish (all to find on his website). I even had the honor to visit his courses and some workshops in person, also joined some online courses and he always left me so fascinated by his wisdom.

Check out his books, several Interviews, podcasts & online courses here:

Dr. Gerald Hüther:

Check out lots of great books, interviews, courses and content on his website, which are a very important part of gaining awareness for self-defined learning from a scientific yet still highly conscious point of view:

Most of the books I've read myself, others I complemented in an authors' repertoire and some are still on my list, yet I didn't add all as most of them are in German. (Kind regards, Susi)

I wish you lots of joy reading and watching!
